STATEMENT OF FACTS

35. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

36. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of minimum wages, overtime pay, spread of hours pay, and failure to provide the required wage notice at the time of hiring would financially injure Plaintiff and similarly situated employees and violate state and federal laws.

Plaintiff Crescenio Torres

37. From July 2008 to April 2017, Plaintiff Crescenio Torres was hired by Defendants to work as a deliveryman for Defendants' restaurant.

38. Starting July 2008 until December 2013, Plaintiff worked from 12 p.m. until 1 a.m. six (6) days per week with no lunch break. Plaintiff worked approximately seventy-eight (78) hours per week. During this period Plaintiff received an hourly pay rate of $7.00 an hour.

39. During January 2014 until December 2014, Plaintiff worked from 12 p.m. until 9 p.m. five (5) days per week with no lunch break. Plaintiff worked approximately forty-five (45) hours per week. During this period Plaintiff received an hourly pay rate of $7.50 an hour.

40. As of January 2015 until April 2017, Plaintiff worked as an on call employee working an average 34 hours per week. As an on call employee, client was expected to be ready and available to work. During this period Plaintiff received an hourly pay rate of $7.50 an hour.

41. From July 2008 – April 2017, Plaintiff has been paid an hourly rate of $7.00 - $7.50 an hour, significantly less than the required hourly rate of $11.00 for a business which employs more than 11 employees in 2017.

42. The applicable minimum wage for the relevant periods are:

- a. July 2008 to July 23, 2009 period was $7.15 per hour.
- b. July 24, 2009 to December 30, 2013 period was $7.25 per hour.
- c. December 31, 2013 to December 30, 2014 period was $8.00 per hour.
- d. December 31, 2014 to December 30, 2015 period was $8.75 per hour.
- e. December 31, 2015 to December 30, 2016 period was $9.00 per hour.
- f. December 31, 2016 to the present period is $11.00 per hour.

43. Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff overtime compensation according to state and federal laws.

44. Plaintiff was not compensated for New York's "spread of hours" premium for shifts that lasted longer than ten (10) hours, one day each week.

45. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not reimbursing Plaintiff for expenses incurred in relation to tools of the trade used by Plaintiff in order to deliver food to customers of Defendants. Plaintiff was required to provide his own method of transportation and pay any and all expenses acquired during the course of deliveries, this includes but is not limited to; gas, tolls, parking, car maintenance, public transportation, tickets and fines.

46. Under the FLSA, the Plaintiff is entitled to a credit for expenses for tools of trade.

47. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with a wage notices at the time of his hiring.

48. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

49. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of minimum wages, overtime and the “spread of hours” premium would economically injure Plaintiff and the Collective Members by their violation of federal and state laws.

50. While employed by Defendants, Plaintiff was not exempt under federal and state laws requiring employers to pay employees overtime.

51. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Action Members’ workdays frequently lasted longer than 10 hours.

52. Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and other Collective Action members’ New York’s “spread of hours” premium for every day in which they worked over 10 hours.

53. Defendants failed to keep full and accurate records of Plaintiff’s hours and wages.

54. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members with written notices about the terms and conditions of their employment upon hire in relation to their rate of pay, regular pay cycle and rate of overtime pay. These notices were similarly not provided upon Plaintiff and other Collective Members’ pay increase(s).

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

55. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying either the FLSA minimum wage or the New York State minimum wage to Plaintiff or other similarly situated employees.

56. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half), or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half), in violation of the FLSA and New York Labor Law and the supporting federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

57. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying the New York State “spread of hours” premium to Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

58. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by the Defendants at each of their four finishing locations for up to the last three (3) years, through entry of judgment in this case (the “Collective Action Period”) and whom failed to receive minimum wages, spread-of-hours pay, and/or overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week (the “Collective Action Members”), and have been subject to the same common decision, policy, and plan to not provide required wage notices at the time of hiring, in contravention to federal and state labor laws.

59. Upon information and belief, the Collective Action Members are so numerous the joinder of all members is impracticable. The identity and precise number of such persons are unknown, and the facts upon which the calculations of that number may be ascertained are presently within the sole control of the Defendants. Upon information and belief, there are more than fifteen (10) Collective Action Members, who have worked for or have continued to work for the Defendants during the Collective Action Period, most of whom would not likely file individual suits because they fear retaliation, lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims. Therefore, Plaintiff submits that this case should be certified as a collection action under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §216(b).

60. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Collective Action Members, and have retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the field of employment law and class action litigation. Plaintiff has no interests that are contrary to or in conflict with those members of this collective action.

61. This action should be certified as collective action because the prosecution of separate action by individual members of the collective action would risk creating either inconsistent or varying adjudication with respect to individual members of this collective that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interest of the other members not party to the adjudication, or subsequently impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

62. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since joinder of all members is impracticable. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it virtually impossible for the members of the collective action to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as collective action.

63. Questions of law and fact common to members of the collective action predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members. Among the questions of fact common to Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members are:

- a. Whether the Defendants employed Collective Action members within the meaning of the FLSA;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members the minimum wage in violation of the FLSA and the regulations promulgated thereunder;

- c. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members overtime wages for all hours worked above forty (40) each workweek in violation of the FLSA and the regulation promulgated thereunder;
- d. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members spread of hours payment for each day an employee worked over 10 hours;
- e. Whether the Defendants failed to provide the Collective Action Members with a wage notice at the time of hiring as required by the NYLL;
- f. Whether the Defendants' violations of the FLSA are willful as that term is used within the context of the FLSA; and,
- g. Whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, punitive, and statutory damages, interest, costs and disbursements and attorneys' fees.

64. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a collective action.

65. Plaintiff and others similarly situated have been substantially damaged by Defendants' unlawful conduct.
